

Satelite radio should be allowed to broadcast local weather and traffic information to a public that is not in the local media but need sthe information to plan their day. Satelite radion would not compete with local broadcast media because it is a fee based service for a public that cannot reach the local market or does not want to listen to all the ads that accompany local media.